Tenders for NHS services

Disclosure Letter

1)In the financial year 2013/14, (a) how many tenders for NHS services did you assess for a possible bid, and (b) of these, how many did you actually bid for?

a)In 2013/14, the number of tenders for NHS services assessed for a possible bid by the trust: 150

b)Of these, the number of tenders for NHS services the trust actually bid for: 15

2)What was the cost for the trust of bidding for the last service tender that you did? If you cannot provide an exact figure, please provide an estimate to the nearest £10,000. Please include staff costs, administrative costs and expenses, and the costs of any external and legal advice.

The cost (or an estimate of the cost) for the trust of bidding for the last service tender that you bid for:

We do not currently record this information. Provision of this data would involve significant effort and cost to retrospectively estimate staff time, costs, administrative costs and expenses. Our commercial development team has undertaken all NHS tender activity since 2012/13. We estimate 50% of their workload involves assessing and bidding for NHS tenders. The approximate cost is £150,000. In addition, colleagues from across our corporate and clinical teams become involved in individual tenders when a decision to bid is taken. We do not currently record the time each individual spends per tender. We can confirm that no legal fees were incurred for any tenders pursued in 2013/14.

3)For the last service tender that you assessed for a possible bid but did not bid for, what was the cost of assessing the tender for a possible bid? If you cannot provide an exact figure, please provide an estimate to the nearest £10,000. Please include staff costs, administrative costs and expenses, and the costs of any external and legal advice.

The cost (or an estimate of the cost) for the trust of assessing the tender for a potential bid:

We do not currently record this information. Of the 150 tenders assessed for a possible bid by the trust in 2013/14, most involved very little effort to assess before being archived. We estimate around 15% of the total were pursued to commercial viability analysis and the majority of these were pursued to PQQ/ITT. We can confirm that no legal fees were incurred for assessment of any tenders pursued in 2013/14

Why the breastfeeding support and healthy weight home visit team is being cut despite Solent NHS's commitment to supporting breastfeeding in Portsmouth?

Disclosure Letter

Solent NHS Trust is fully committed to promoting breast feeding and has recently been awarded the UNICEF Baby Friendly accreditation and we will be working hard to meet the new standards by the next inspection in 2016.

Midwives and Health Visitors work together to provide antenatal and breast feeding support. This will be continued through midwifery services in the early hours and days in the postnatal period and by health visitors from 10 days and beyond. Telephone contact will be available through midwifery and health visiting services.

Targeted additional support and the breast feeding support groups will continue to be available across Portsmouth City in Children's Centres who are also accredited under the Baby Friendly Initiative stage 3 standards which means they are supportive environments for breast feeding. In addition health visitors offer home visits to support and promote breast feeding.

By March 2015 the number of health visitors in Portsmouth will have doubled since 2011 and the changes reflect this increase which ensures they have smaller caseload sizes and more time to offer to families pre-birth to 5 years delivering a new national model of health visiting through the Healthy Child Programme. During the past few years we committed to ensuring every health visitor is provided with accredited breast feeding training which includes teaching and a practical assessment. We have also provided regular updates. Some roles from the current team will be retained in the service to ensure targeted support is available to families.

I confirm that we hold the information as below.

1. For few system like PAS, EPR and Scheduling, for the question "Was this system acquired through NPfIT", you have answered "Yes & No". Could you please clarify if these systems are procured under NPfIT or not.

The answer should read Yes.

2. For Clinical workflow engine / integrated care pathways, you have mentioned that trust is using "SystmOne" but you have entered "N/A" in Version Number question. Please clarify if here "N/A" means information "Not Available" or "Not Applicable".

Neither, there is only ever one version of SystmOne.

Request Summary

Payroll Issues

Disclosure Letter

I confirm that we hold the information as below.

1. When calculating the percentages of occasions that a monitored rota is compliant with the banding requirements for natural breaks, do your standard systems or processes undertake such calculations solely with reference to returned diary cards, or are there instances where they use substituted data? If there are such circumstances in which substituted data is used please provide a description of those circumstances?

DRS will calculate the natural breaks compliance of a monitoring exercise solely on the data which is populated. Unreturned diary cards or occasions where doctors have indicated they were on leave are excluded from the calculations. We believe this provides a fair reflection of the achievement of natural breaks on any given exercise.

2. When calculating the percentages of worked periods of duty for which monitoring returns have been provided in order to determine the validity of a monitoring exercise, do your standard systems or processes undertake such calculations solely with reference to worked periods of duty, or are there instances where they include unworked shifts? If there are such circumstances in which data for unworked shifts is used please provide a description of those circumstances?

DRS will calculate the return rate based on the number of days on which data was entered and saved vs the total number of days for which data was expected.

3. Do your standard systems or processes facilitate a DIT who has worked a 10 hour shift, but who has not received any natural breaks, to report more than one instance of failure to provide natural breaks? If the answer is yes please can you confirm how your system achieves this, providing a copy of screenshot(s) or other documentation that demonstrates this functionality in operation?

On each day of the exercise there is a single tick box to indicate whether a doctor believes they have achieved natural breaks. While this doesn't provide the facility for occasions-based analysis, we believe this approach is a fair and neutral way of recording the achievement of breaks. Just as multiple failures on a single day would be counted as one fail, multiple achievements of natural breaks on a single day are only counted as one success, so the overall result favours neither party.

4. Do your standard systems or processes facilitate a DIT who has worked a half-day (e.g. 4 hour) shift, for whom no natural break entitlement has arisen, to report a null value instead of having to report an instance of compliance or non-compliance? If the answer is yes please can you confirm how your system achieves this, providing a copy of screenshot(s) or other documents that demonstrates this functionality in operation?

At present there is no function within DRS to do this.

5. Do your standard systems or processes provide that a rota be awarded a Band 3 payment when, on less than 75% of occasions on which DIT is working an on-call pattern, the DIT does not receive both rest equivalent to at least one half of the out-of-hours duty period and a minimum of 5 hours continuous rest between 10pm and 8am on the same occasion? If the answer is yes please can you confirm how your system achieves this, providing documentation that substantiates your answer?

DRS will report these two elements separately and provide two percentage compliance figures. The system will not analyse them in addition to one another. We believe this to be in line with the TCS and banding flowchart. The banding flowchart helps provide clarity in that the two should be measured separately. The BMA were involved in both the development of the banding flowchart as well as the design of the DRS Rule Book, and as such it is surprising that they are now wanting to take a different interpretation to that which has been in use for the past 14 or so years

CRB checks

Disclosure Letter

I am writing to advise you that I have established that the information you requested is not held by this Trust.

1.The number of people who applied for jobs at the trust who failed to pass a DBS or CRB check.

If a person was rejected at shortlisting or interview stage due to their DBS check we would not have this information within HR nor retained by the manager All applications and interview notes for unsuccessful candidates are only retained for a period of 6 months after the interview.

If an offer of employment was withdrawn because of a DBS check HR would only retain a copy of the documentation for 6 months and then it would be destroyed as the person would not have commenced employment with us due to unsuccessful pre employment checks.

2.The number of staff who failed, were flagged up, or had previous convictions or offences (or any other way of marking a concern) during such checks who were then employed or are still employed by the trust, including checks after they were employed.

We do not keep this information centrally and it would mean that we would have to go into individual files to extract this information if it is available in the HR or manager files, which would exceed the 18 hours allowed under the FOI Act.

At the point of employment if anyone declares that they have a previous conviction this is discussed at interview stage. If the person is offered a post with the Trust it will be after the manager has assessed if the conviction will have impact on their employment at the Trust.

With the changes in DBS legislation certain minor convictions have now been removed from the disclosure list and therefore some of the convictions declared at interview and risk assessed may no longer fall under the DBS declaration remit.

Staff who have access to vulnerable children and adults are currently being rechecked after 3 years and have to declare on the DBS form if they have any convictions and the manager should pick up any additional information provided on the DBS form. This may warrant another risk assessment or further guidance from our HR Business Partners
